"How Dare You"

Like every day, the sunset comes
The end is here, stand where you belong
When it's time, will you say good bye

What would you do- would you do- would you do
When he points his finger down at you
What would you do- would you do

Like every day, let it loose
Full of anger, bottles broke
Out of control, Paranoia, sick of it all

What would you do- would you do- would you do
When he points his finger down at you
What would you do- would you do

When he is coming for you
Taking you by the hand- leading you to
Would you walk through

What would you do- would you do- would you do
When he points his finger down at you
Would you walk thru- would you walk thru
What would you do- would you do- would you do
When he points his finger down at you
Would you walk thru- Would you walk thru

How dare you
