You kill in the name
Of all those blame
You hate everything
Don't you?

You walk in a maze
It goes on for days
You hate everything
Don't you?

The ending is coming near my dear

Shall we say goodbye?
The walls are losing in my dear
Who will save our lives?
It's the killing; it's the real thing
Do we have to die?
We're walking in our sleep again
Let us wake and rise

From death

Be gone, don't come around no more
