Oh Sweet Holy One
I've tried it on my own
And I watched it burn down
Ablaze with my selfishness
My greedy bones tried to condone

Chorus:
It's the direction that I took
That seems to make a change
The giving up of what I used to be
I've tried and I failed only to say
That Yahweh is the only way

Something is missing here
And I'd really like to see a change
You know I would
'Cause it's the same thing again
Day by day
Business as usual, but not today

(Chorus)
