Walking down the street, avoiding the cops
With size ten boots and a number one crop
People avoid you as you pass by
Only the smart ones know the media lies

Chorus:

If there's a riot, in here tonight

If you try it, in here tonight

If there's a riot, in here tonight

That's bad news

Read the latest slander in the daily news

Whatever lies that the editors choose

Stories concocted in a liar's lair

How could we do it, when we weren't there

(Repeat Chorus)

You'll find yourself banned from everywhere

You'll find the criticism real hard to bear

Keep a strong will, hold your head up high

Make sure skinheads never die

(Repeat Chorus) x2
