Don't wanna talk about the government peace,
It's just another virtue with a throwout piece.
Congradulate yourselves while the people die.
Just to win one election dosen't fly.

You can talk about a thing called love,
while the bombs rain down from above.
You can talk about a thing called love,
And you can shove your fucking Dove! Up your ASS!

Where was the dove flying in Belize,
Where was the dove when the cannon shoots.
Lots of poor people are sick in the end,
Where was the dove fighting round the bend.

You can talk about a thing called love,
while the bombs rain down from above.
You can talk about a thing called love,
And you can shove your fucking Dove! Up your ASS!

You can talk about a thing called love,
while the bombs rain down from above.
You can talk about a thing called love,
And you can shove your fucking Dove! Up your ASS!

Where was the dove in Falkland Islands,
Where was the dove fighting Northern Ireland.
Where was the dove in Afghanistan,
When the Russian bastards gave everyone there hand.

You can talk about a thing called love,
while the bombs rain down from above.
You can talk about a thing called love,
And you can shove your fucking Dove! Up your ASS!

You can talk about a thing called love,
while the bombs rain down from above.
You can talk about a thing called love,
And you can shove your fucking Dove! Up your ASS!
