I block out everything that I've ever known
Because now it's only but a dream.
Stuck in my head just like all the rest,
It's not the same as it used to be.

[Chorus:]

It seems like this has gone on for way too long,
'Cause everything I do turns out wrong.
I never could seem to ever get a grip
Or just walk away and get over it.

So now I'll take my chance and finally roll the dice
To see what I just may get.
But as I turn my cheek and look the other way,
It's everything I do regret.

[Chorus:]

It seems like this has gone on for way too long,
'Cause everything I do turns out wrong.
I never could seem to ever get a grip
Or just walk away and get over it.

(GO! AND GET OVER IT!)

[Chorus: x2]

It seems like this has gone on for way too long,
'Cause everything I do turns out wrong.
I never could seem to ever get a grip
Or just walk away and get over it.
