Let's clear the air with words we say
Or everyone will have to pay
For the actions that we both commit.
And why can't we be just like them,
And why don't we have any friends?
I think this life is chalked full of shit
And this can't be it.

Our thoughts are pressed against the wall,
You grip me tight as we both fall,
And I don't know what I should do now.
But finally we start to breathe
And finally start to believe
That the words we speak will save us somehow,
Will save us right now.

Time's moving faster as we both go.
Will it slow down, well nobody knows.
This can't be right 'cause it's all the same
And nothing here will ever change.

Now finally the time has come
We came so far and now we're done
But nothing here will change the past
So why don't we just leave this place
'Cause nothing here will be erased
And the words we speak will go by so fast
And now they won't last

Time's moving faster as we both go.
Will it slow down, well nobody knows.
This can't be right 'cause it's all the same
And nothing here will ever change.

And every day of your lives'
They tell you you're no good
And that you'll never amount to anything
And that you should just give up all hope
Stop trying!

Time's moving faster as we both go.

Will it slow down, well nobody knows.
This can't be right 'cause it's all the same

Time's moving faster as we both go
(I'll take my time to think shit through)
Will it slow down, well nobody knows
(There's nothing left for me to do)
This can't be right 'cause it's all the same
(I'm all alone and there's no one here)
And nothing here will ever change
(I live my life in fear)
