"After The Rain"

People call me a lonely man
A man who's damned and doomed
At the fire I'm all alone
The lost souls singing for him
After the rain
There will be sun
After the rain
I dry my gun
After the rain
After the rainy, rainy rain
I' gonna dry my gun
A girl loves kisses
Then she thinks
Tongues taste like ice cubes in a drink
But then a devil came along
Did to her more than singing songs
Uhuhuh x5
After the rain
There will be sun
After the rain
She will have fun
After the rain
After the rainy, rainy rain
She's gonna dry my gun
Yeah
Thunder hits
Lightning strikes
Sunshine shines
After the rain
There will be sun
After the rain
I dry my gun
After the rain
After the rainy, rainy rain
I' gonna clean my gun
