I was following you downtown baby
That's when you dropped your keys
Must have been around 5 o'clock when I showed up at your door
Somebody told me it was all right
You were expecting me over
I had roses
I'd brought you roses

Chorus

I was thinkin' 'bout the last time I saw you
Your magic and your strange positions
I remember baby last time I saw you
I've yet to feel my last vibration
High noon and it's a showdown baby
I've dropped you to your knees
Super sticky on the southbound, do they know it's make believe?
Somebody told me it was all right
You were inside shining your chains
I had roses
I'd brought you roses

Chorus

I was thinkin' 'bout the last time I saw you
Your magic and your strange positions
I remember baby last time I saw you
I've yet to feel my last vibration
We could say that you were lonely for a while
Make it up yeah as we go along
It's been an hour now it's got to change
If it's ok with you
It's always ok with you
{but only if it's ok with you}
