Make my money
Take my time
Eat my bread
And drink all my wine

I got those East Coast City blues
I got them like never before
I got those East Coast City blues
I got them like never before

And the longer
My girl is away
I just miss her
More and more

Don't take no bullshit
Don't feel no shame
Don't trust nobody else
'Cause they're all the same

I've got those East Coast city blues
I've got them like never before
I got those East Coast city blues
I've got them like never before

But the longer
My girl is away
I just miss her
More and more

I know you're dangerous
I know you're kind
I know that you're starting
To drive me out of my mind

I got those East Coast city blues
I've got them like never before
I got those East Coast city blues
I've got them like never before

But the longer that

My girl is away
I just miss her
More and more
