I get much higher, but then I'm out like a light.
I can't remember most of the day, not to mention most of the night.
So Mary Mary have mercy on me, for the things that I do.
I'm running with a gun, and I'll die when I'm done.

This goes for you as well as me
They'll make us both come quietly
Don't try to deny that...

You had it comin' and I did too
Should have never got started
And I warned you.

Take another look, choose another door
Find the one with Jesus and even out the score
The finer side of life, deny it more and more.
Lost another lease, and found the liquor store.
And we let it go, oh so quietly.

And this goes for you as well as me
They'll make us both come quietly
Don't try to deny that...

You had it comin' and I did too
Should have never got started

And I warned you.
