I'll paly Bacchus for the evening, pray, be seated, take your places Should my manna seem displeasing, offend your airs and graces, I've a list long as your arm,
(The connoisseur's selection) such bitter whines - a quaff of qualms, awaiting your inspections

The bubbles burst - this aint sham-pain I've watched hopes wither on the vine
The fruits of labours toiled in vain
I reap soul-grapes at harvest time.

Anno 1999 - a classic year for Vintage Whine.

Since it's drawn - I must sup the cellarage of sorrow yet fate refills my tarnished cup each time I drain the dregs
Their poison cannot kill me - new strength from it I 'll borrow my maudlin is a caudle that would fill a thousand kegs.

Here's one for the road - afore ye go drink deep sweet lads and lasses Those blighted crops you gladly sow shall one day fill your glasses Brood for decades - pure hate distilled then bottled up much longer Revenge - a draught I'll serve you chilled, when time has made it stronger

Non-cordial - it's bile bouquet.
Laments ferment the patience schnapps Cask full of mulled futile dismay My well-aged-rage - you 've turned the taps
