Boo hoo
That's you crying in the night
And your fists are clenched so tight
Keeping secrets

Screw you
That's what you would love to say
And you'd kick 'em out the way
But instead you're silent

But what if for one day, just one time
Maybe you might try, might try to

Scream it
If something isn't right, tell somebody else
What you fear, what you're feeling
Scream it, don't keep it to yourself
All of the rocks you got on your mind
Go to the top and throw them down one by one

Poor me
That's you drinking once again
'Cause it helps you to pretend
When you say it's alright

Save me
That's you're feeling so alone
Going through this on your own
You don't have to

So what if for one day, just one time
Maybe you might try, might try to

Scream it
If something isn't right, tell somebody else
What you fear, what you're feeling
Scream it, don't keep it to yourself
All of the rocks you got on your mind
Go to the top and throw them down one by one
Throw them down one by one

Boo hoo
That's you crying

Scream it
Don't keep it to yourself

Scream it
If something isn't right, tell somebody else
What you fear, what you're feeling
Scream it, don't keep it to yourself
All of the rocks you got on your mind
Go to the top and throw them down one by one
Throw them down one by one

Boo hoo
That's you crying in the night
And your fists are clenched so tight
Keeping secrets
