Falling deep and I feel a heart hiding in the night
Hiding in the dark
I'll reach in after the part I feel down inside
Under the rock

I'll take my brightest light
I'll take my rope
I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to breathe
The darkness in the air

I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to see
The shining light ahead

Crawl, creeping, gone deep enough
Blinded by the quiet
I need to adjust
Faint beating call me above
I have you in my sight
Here to lift you up

I'll take my brightest light
I'll take my rope
I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to breathe
The darkness in the air

I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to see
The shining light ahead

Hope and focus on the bright light up ahead
My rope will lead you there
Hope and focus on the bright light up ahead
My rope will lead you there

I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to breathe
The darkness in the air

I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to see
The shining light ahead

I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to breathe
The darkness in the air

I'll pull you out
I'll pull you out to love again
When you're beneath so hard to see
The shining light ahead

Hope and focus on the bright light up ahead
My rope will lead you there
Hope and focus on the bright light up ahead
