Sex cells overloading, breaking through a shell
Divine biology in me, chromo-zoning, all to be revealed
Sex cells transforming like a magic spell
And mirroring female in male, we sow seeds, flower at will

Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again, again
,again

Sex cells, now revolving, spinning outta world Analysis replay, DNA, who controls this, what'll seal the deal?
Sex cells, start of all things, heart of something real
A molecule decode, reload another part of me, boy or a girl?

Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again, again
,again

Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again, again
,again

Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again
Living in the light of hope, the sign of life again, again
,again
