Don't get me wrong
You always had me fighting
For oxygen
In the beginning it's so exciting

We felt the heat
Just you and me
We let it take us
We were the embers

Rising, leaving the crowd underneath us
I could've sworn we were rising
(I could've sworn we were rising)
(I could've sworn we were rising)
Flying, higher and higher like spacemen
I really thought we were flying
(I really thought we were flying)

Oh, we fall down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down

Don't get me wrong
You always had me crying
Tears of fun
Just wish I knew how to reignite it

And feel the heat
Just you and me
We let it take us
We were the embers

Rising, leaving the crowd underneath us
I could've sworn we were rising
(I could've sworn we were rising)
(I could've sworn we were rising)
Flying, higher and higher like spacemen
I really thought we were flying
(I really thought we were flying)

We fall down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down

Deeper and deeper
We're falling through the ground
Straight through, we break through
The other side and out until we're

Rising, leaving the crowd underneath us
I could've sworn we were rising
(I could've sworn we were rising)
(I could've sworn we were rising)
Flying higher and higher like spacemen
I really thought we were flying
(I really thought we were flying)

Rising, leaving the crowd underneath us
I could've sworn we were rising
(I could've sworn we were rising)

We fall down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down
