Are we going south babe?
To the bottom of the world maybe?
Breed it to nobody
Our reasons in a high heel
Don't take any calls for an innovation
That head is your last accommodation
Make sure to stay a-long
All night with your head, someone had to bash it
That thought needs a drink and a close look at it
All night with your head, someone had to bash it

It pays to know
The way it goes
Don't try again
Down south it always end
That evil thing
It weep and sing
The hardest night
Is my all-time morning story

It catches you in a hard rain
Hits you like a tidal wave
Streaming thru your tele
Or waiting to be faded in
All night with your head, someone had to bash it
That thought needs a drink and a close look at it
All night with your head, someone had to bash it

It pays to know
The way it goes
Don't try again
Down south it always end
That evil thing
It weep and sing
The hardest night
Is my all-time morning story
