My better half
Bet I am glad to sleep you off
A redefined heart of mine
Got hopes to get enough
Show some rage, show some faith
Or eat it off the floor
And speak out right from your mind
Or come back here no more

Your rags, my riches
Your rags, my riches
Vertigo, atomise
Get us all little cripples on your side
Vertigo, atomise
Turn out the lights

Calling out
Now cut it out
Why are you surprised?
Just cover lips with fingertips
Or bury them in lies
I make my way
Anyway
I got just one demand
On every hit
And every bit
Of anybody's hand

Your rags, my riches
Your rags, my riches
Vertigo, atomise
Get us all little cripples on your side
Vertigo, atomise
Turn out the lights
