You got killer eyes and an ice-cream tongue
We got things to do while we're still young
And so come along, come along, come along
I'll come too

You got kissing lips and a pretty head
We've got things to do before we're dead
So sing along, sing along, sing along
I'll sing too

And nothing really matters but you and me
You're my top request now don't you see?

Right now you are my favourite tune
I just wanna play you, baby
Download you but pay you, baby

Right now I'm tuning into you
Audio that thrills me, baby
Sonic boom that kills me, baby

Your strings are loose and you strum it good
But you're holding back like I knew you would
When I come along, come along, come along
You come too

We hear cymbals clash inside our heads
It's like dynamite, someone call the Feds
They might sing along, sing along, sing along
We'll sing too

And nothing really matters but you and me
You're my top ten hit now don't you see?

Right now you are my favourite tune
I just wanna play you, baby
Download you but pay you, baby

Right now I'm tuning into you
Audio that thrills me, baby
Sonic boom that kills me, baby

So we play the song, so we play the song
And the song goes on and on and on
And we play the track, play it back to back
Music never made me feel like that

You got killer eyes and an ice-cream tongue
We got things to do while we're still young
And so come along, come along, come along
I'll come too

And nothing really matters but you and me
You're my top request, now don't you see?
Nothing really matters but me and you
We got a top ten hit and shit to do

Right now you are my favourite tune
I just wanna play you, baby
Download you but pay you, baby

Right now I'm tuning into you
Audio that thrills me, baby
Sonic boom that kills me, baby
