You've got killer eyes
And an ice cream tongue
We've got things to do
While we're still young
So come along, come along, come along
I'll come too

You've got kissy lips
And a pretty head
We've got things to do
Before we're dead
So sing along, sing along, sing along
I'll sing too

And nothin' really matters but you and me You're my top request now don't you see

Right now
You are my favorite tune
I just wanna play you baby
Download you, but pay you baby
Right now
I'm tuning into you
Audio that thrills me baby
Sonic boom that kills me baby

You're strings are loose
And you strum is good
But you're holding back
Like I knew you would
Come along, come along, come along
You come too

We hear symbols crash inside our heads Its like dynamite, someone call the feds They might sing along, sing along, sing along We'll sing too

And nothing really matters but you and me

You're a top 10 hit now don't you see

Right now
You are my favorite tune
I just wanna play you baby
Download you, but pay you baby
Right now
I'm tuning into you
Audio that thrills me baby
Sonic boom that kills me baby

So we play the song
So we play the song
And the song goes on and on and on
And we play the track
Play it back to back
Music never made me feel like that

You've got killer eyes
And an ice cream tongue
We've got things to do
So come along, come along, come along

And nothin' really matters but you and me You're my top request now don't you see And nothin' really matters but me and you We've got a top 10 hit and shit to do

Right now
I'm tuning into you
