My dog's lookin' at me for some scraps perhaps, but I'm waitin for a Tuesday as you might say When the house gets dark the lake gets bright Tuesday comes the fastest yeah I'm always right
Tuesday comes the fastest yeah I'm always right

Take it from my mind, any other time it won't bug me
To know just who I am, am I my only friend, it won't bug
me

If I'm ever feeling the kind of love that ain't from you and ain't from above
I'll swear it on myself yeah I'll swear it on my grave I'll pick it up pack it up bring it home to share with you, pick it up pack it up

Take it from my mind, any other time it won't bug me
me

Sometimes the truth is hard to say Bite my lip and say it anyways
How many questions how many times must I ask Before you admit the truth to me at last
