The dusty road's behind me now.
Really I'm amazed at how
I've felt the joy; I've felt the pain.
I've seen the snow; I've felt the rain.

Awake now God of day,
I know just where you've been.
I've seen the Devil's face,
And he won't let you in.
If you remove your mask,
And realize your sin,
The gates of hell will wake,
And let you in.

I'm standing at your door.
I'm begging you once more.
So if you give a damn.
Then show me who I am.

So now you come to rescue me,
To save me from this agony.
In spite of all that's been conveyed,
I feel the hurt of love betrayed.

Awake now God of day,
I know just where you've been.
I've seen the Devil's face,
And he won't let me in.
If I remove my mask and risk it all,
The wall between us now, will surely fall.

I'm standing at your door.
I'm begging you once more.
So if you give a damn,
Then show me who I am.

In nights of pain you called to me,
In this dark abyss of misery.
At the end of all, when love decides,
We must fall... Fall to rise.

I'm standing at your door.
I'm begging you once more.
So if you give a damn,
Then show me who I am.

Who I am.
Who I am.
Who I am.
