Behind the walls we seem to know
We have faith in too many things
And we just don't know what to choose
We have control over everything
And we could stand to lose it all
I believe we are...Supernova
Born onto a dying star
What if we had known but what if we were never meant
to know
Behind our star
to know
We die stranded here
Would we survive? Would we die behind our star?
We want this to be over
We have believe in so many things
That we just don't know what to do
We have faith in too many things
That we just don't know what to choose
Supernova....Tell us once again will we ever know?
Tell us who we are. Born onto a dying star.
Home again, home again, home again.
When will I be home again?
When will I be home again?
When will I be home again?
When will I be home again?
When will I be home again?
We want this to be over.
We want this to be over.
We want this to be over.
We want this to be over.
Tell us who we are...tell us who we are...tell us who we are...tell.
We want this to be over although we need it so badly.
Supernova. Tell us once again will we ever know?
Tell us who we are. Born onto a dying star.
Tell us once again will we ever know
Tell us who we are
Born onto a dying star, tell us who we are
