"Alone at Last"

Visit "Alone at Last" on MotoLyrics.com

Right back where you want to be
Nothing blocks your way to see
No one takes a part of what you own

Plenty of the space you crave
Time to spend instead of save
That's the only place that you call home

Chorus:
Nothing to weigh you down
You're running so fast
No one to answer to
You're alone at last

There may come a time
When you will find your aim not so true
And there is something wanting in your world

When you dance there's only air
The chance you take is your own dare
No one stands to catch you when you whirl

Chorus:
Nothing can stop you now
No ties to the past
You've never felt so free
You're alone at last

Repeat first chorus
