Cypress Grove
That's where I'm heading
It's way down Lexington
By the corner bar

I get off work
Around eleven
I'm sure they'll let you in
If you come in style

And I won't treat you so bad
'Cause you're the best I've ever had
Oh oh oh

Your father's gone
The famous criminal
Buried with his Pa in Illinois

His love's asleep
In a turning windmill
Laying with a wanted Iriquois

But we don't need to sleep at all
'Til the lights of Newburg fall

Saturn's bright
The kids have scattered
Half of all I own is in my fist

Tie together your sheets
Throw 'em out your window
And meet me where the ocean meets the cliff

Just like Joseph Kennedy
We'll explode into the sea
Oh oh oh
