If you feel alone is best to expose any thoughts of doubt,
You gotta air it out!
Awake, You greet another day with the choices that you make,
Decide what you will leave, decide what you will take,
Decisions are the key to release what you don't need
If you gonna let it be, then you have to let it be!
Be mindful not to keep,
The residue of anything that had you feeling weak,
Like what was said, versus what you think,
Sometimes your own assumptions of the ways will make you sink,
Feeling down,
It could be an addiction,
Getting up,
Can be filled with hesitation,
It takes determination,
Don't fall for the distractions,
These attractions are the target on your soul.
Asking you to stay when you know you have to go.
Know the things you know,
Cause the path is just you own,
Lessons will be lessened if you listen to their fear,
Hear your truth, keep it near!
And then you just breathe!

Chorus:

You gotta let it go,
Let it go so you can grow!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go! Just Breathe!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go so you can grow!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go! Breathe!

Avoid all this confusion,
Refuse this illusion even if you destiny is not blessed.
Know it's your time!
No matter who came before you,

Don't let them where you're down,
With the pain of their parts,
Shape your own mind.
It's irrelevant,
If relevance is measured by the elements
Without bearing a reference to your own kind
EARTHLING
You may find that we're living in an era that can't be defined.
By those who thought that this was the end,
By those who thought that the enemies would win,
By those who let paranoia turn them inside out,
Do you know what this life is all about?
Can you remember before anyone taught you
To feel as if life it was never gonna treat you,
Better than a lesser, but that was in the prequel.
What about now?
You took it in so let it out. (Breathe)

Chorus:
Breathe!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go so you can grow!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go! Just Breathe!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go so you can grow!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go! Breathe!

You can do anything you want to do!
Anything that your heart truly chooses,
It may be a lonely journey but it's yours!
Is your purpose!
You may have to leave some things behind ,
You may have to change your mind
And you can't bring everybody with you,
They will be better off for having known you,
So just breathe!

Chorus:
You gotta let it go,
Let it go so you can grow!
You gotta let it go,
Let it go! Breathe!
You gotta let it go,
BREATHE!
