I'll Have to Go Away — K. Chater, R. Armand

Tired, yes I am
I thought I'd found a home
But life in the city is dark and it's dirty
So I guess I'll have to go away

Lonely, yes I am
No-one knows my name
I'm lost in a place where no-one has a face
So I guess, I guess I'll have to go away

[Chorus]
Saying goodbye's not easy
How will I ever explain

Everything looks just like cardboard pictures
Falling apart in the rain

Running, yes I am
I wave goodbye to all the trains
If I'm looking for a river that goes on forever
I guess I'll have to go away

[Repeat Chorus]

[Key change — Instrumental]

[Repeat Chorus twice]

In the rain....
