There's a man of
Which we're fans of
Out there sailing around the world.
He's a pirate
Always wasted
And the captain of the Pearl.

His vocabulary's extraordinary.
Pirate linguist is quite superfluous, really
Go, YO-HO
A pirates life for me.

There's a man of
Which we're fans of
Out there sailing around the world.
He's a pirate
Always wasted
And the captain of the Pearl.

He's the master
He's a bastard
He's a liar
And he's plastered.
Drink up, me hearties - yo-ho
And a Pirates life for me.
