Don't tell me, I don't wanna hear about it
Keep all of that to yourself
You try to be, so different
You're just like everyone else

Chorus:

Eden has burned out baby
Your Camelot's falling down
There's nothing but rubble and ashes
Scattered out on the cold, hard ground

You were, so special
And now you're nothing at all
You're down in, my trenches
You're late for the midnight ball

Repeat Chorus

You told me, it was alright
You were gonna make it back on time
You're reaching, for something
Don't you think it's time you stopped, cause

Repeat Chorus
