Strike that match one more time, tonite it burns. I hope they don't take this lightly. One by one it all falls right to the ground. In cinders and ashes. Well start again when the city starts to sink. Ya, ya, ya. Watch the skyline burn so brightly. Curse these miles between us, the nights seem twice as long and they days seem like a broken record. soon the city's all gone, setting us both free. Well start again when the city starts to sink. Ya, ya, ya. Watch the skyline burn so brightly. Well start again, when it's just you and me. Ya, ya, ya. Leave this all behind. I can't wait to burn it. Well start again when the city starts to sink. Ya, ya, ya. Watch the skyline burn so brightly. Well start again, when it's just you and me. Ya, ya, ya. Leave this all behind.
