You can
Say that
You know that's just not fair
One more time and maybe I wont be there
Winters come and it's brought a change
I know that things can't be the same
It's hard to do I know that too yeah
You're not the person that I once thought you were
It's hard to do I know that too yeah
Turn a blind eye
Whatever makes it easier
Tearing me up
Cold hearted you can't see
Exactly what you've just done to me
You can say whatever you want
I'll tune you out
Take a swing and I'll likely duck
But if not you'll lay me out.
