I can't see this getting any better
If things were gonna change
They would have by now
If you die before me
We'll face it together

It never gets easier
To see you in this state
If I could reverse the roles
I'd surely take your place

I sit here alone again
And watch it slowly drain
The breath and the life from you
Until I hear you say

This won't be my last gasp
You've made me far too strong to give up now
We will overcome this
I know that we'll find a way somehow
All the hope in the world
Rest deep inside you
Stronger than the most deadly poison
It will carry you right through

The look that's on your face
Speaks of anguish
The pain that's in your eye
Is a window to us all
If you die before me
We'll face it together

I think of what life would be like
Without you here with me
It's a life I wouldn't want to live
So empty so surreal
I sit here alone again
Watch you fall asleep
A calm chill invades the room
I can see inside your dreams

You say
I will wake tomorrow
My love for you will keep me here
With all the strength you've given

All the hope in the world
Rests deep inside you
Stronger then the most deadly poison
It will carry you right through

You will, Pull through
If there's anything i know
You will, Pull through

When you do
It will renew my faith
In everything
When you do
In everything (In everything)

I will feel the same
No matter what the outcome
Can't face another day
23 years thrown away
I need to see you through this
So we can start again

I will feel the same
I need to see you through this
So we can start again
