Our differences have set us apart... They can't bind me
Our hearts have been equivalent from the start... If only
I spoke the words at the right time
A loss for words to build the right line

Reflect a traitor to make my mind cry open, behave!
Like gentlemen... like proper men we dive in Live... You'll be the proof of my existence
My pride, my dreams... They all belong just to me

So alive, we coexist, we coexist... So envious, So envious... We pray for this
So alive, we coexist, we coexist... So envious, So
envious... We pray for this

Listen to my story... This may be our last chance
'Cause people die and people dance

Listen to my story... This may be our last chance
'Cause people die and people dance

Listen to my story... This may be our last chance
'Cause people die and people dance

Reflect a traitor to make my mind cry open, behave!
Like gentlemen... like proper men we dive in
Live... You'll be the proof of my existence
My pride, my dreams... They all belong just to me

So alive, we coexist, we coexist... So envious, So envious... We pray for this
envious... We pray for this

Listen to my story... This may be our last chance
'Cause people die and people dance!
