I'll find you out
Replacements are overrated, they're overrated
And it's been said once or twice now
Silently we reach the day
The secret's out now
With your eyes in the back of your head
Can you see it's me?
And I will find a way to hunt you down
I'll go to every niche and corner of this town, of this town

And I won't stop until the bleeding all has run out

Remember what you said about being a friend now?
The movement in her hips strikes the hour when the poison sets in
Well, how do you wake? (How do you wake?)
How do you sleep at night?
Remember what you said

I know where you are
Plan your escape
Do exactly as I say
Some odd years now comply
Fight for your chance at life

They'll never find out where I buried you,
Where I buried you

And I will force you to sit upright with access to your heart
Now's your time to plea
Say it, "Set me free!"
Set me free,
Set me free,
Set me free

Remember what you said about being a friend now?
The movement in her hips strikes the hour when the
poison sets in
Well, how do you wake? (How do you wake?)
How do you sleep at night?

Remember what you said

Remember what you said about being a friend now?
The movement in her hips strikes the hour when the
poison sets in
Well, how do you wake? (Well, how do you wake?)
How do you sleep at night?
Remember what you said
