Clothes, you don't know what I'm wearing you for
You don't know where I end and you start
You don't know what my senses are for

Kings, kings and queens of the celebrity show
Gucci smiles for the monkey's who know
That good intentions don't dig out the holes

I never knew you had a heart
I never knew you'd make it start
Forget the fool forget that part
I'd rather say, I'd rather say you're a star

You're a star cant you see
It's inside you and it's free
It's the answer to your dreams
You're a star cant you see
It's amazing when you breath
It's the wake up call I need
You're a star, shine on me
Where you are, I wanna' be

Shoes, you don't know why I'm walking in you
A thousand doves couldn't carry me through
The one who knows is the one in this room
Freaks, freakshow logos wherever you walk
TV hosts write their own epitaphs
Public votes show the people have thought

I never knew you had a heart
I never knew you'd make it start
Forget the fool forget that part
I'd rather say, I'd rather say you're a star

(Chorus)
Star
(Chorus)

You're a star, shine on me
Where you are, we wanna' be
You're a star, shine on me

Where you are, I wanna' be
