you try to cross the universe I'm in the way, I fill it that satallite your longing for revolves because I will it and man, I know your story but I never watch tv...

CHORUS

that city blue that you once knew means all the world to me the vacuum you percieved so small is really never-ending you would have known if you'd recall the message I've been sending

but my heart just breaks in three...

the city blue that you once knew
