I'll be down the street doing laundry,
I'll be down the street doing laundry,
I'll be folding up and sorting out somethings,
Just so you know if you need me,
There's gonna be a little space in between,
There's gonna be a little space in between,
I'll be dancing on the wire chasing dreams,
Just so you know if you need me.

So I sing to my bird,
To the beat of my pulse you know I can't wait forever on pins and needles,
Lately forgive me I've been singing to a bird in another
tree,
Oh lately forgive me I've been singing to a bird in another tree.

I'll be on the road writing memories,
I'll be on the road writing memories,
I'll be putting all the mad ones into sleep,
Just so you know if you need me,
Maybe I'll fly away on out of sight,
Maybe I'm swept away and I don't know why,
I'm going to take it as it comes and wait and see,
Just so you know if you need me.

So I sing to my bird,
To the beat of my pulse you know I can't wait forever on
pins and needles,
Lately forgive me I've been singing to a bird in another
tree,
Oh lately forgive me I've been singing to a bird in
another tree.

So I sing to my bird,
To the beat of my pulse,
You know it won't last forever this time spent apart,
Maybe we'll find out our dreams intertwine in the sea,
in the valley,
You've already had me,
Maybe we'll find out we just needed time to be free,

Oh maybe we'll find out we just needed time in another tree.
