These thoughts they consume me
It's in the air
And each time you see them
They'll disappear

You know its overrated when the sounds heard form
the ground
We're sleeping in different cities every night
It's unbelievable how high
You know its overrated when the sounds heard form
the ground
We're sleeping in different cities every night
Sleep child

The faster that you dream
Is the furthest you will be

It's unbelievable how high
You know its overrated when the sounds heard form
the ground
We're sleeping in different cities every night
Sleep child
