Bust my ass the whole week through, work my life away
Slaving for the company every fucking day
Waiting for the quitting time when I'm set free
The boss man never gave a shit about the likes of you and me

Working from 5 to 9 we break our fucking backs
We work likes slaves for minimum wage, we don't get any slack
Working 6 days a week we got no time for fun
This working class way of life has got me on the run

Just another working class story
Just another working mans song
