Here we go again today
We keep on running away from the pain Say was so out of control with people Pushing the last of the edge

+refrain+

Now you dont care if we listen
And you wont dare if were bleeding
But we wont stop from believing That life is moving, life is moving

+chorus+2x+

this is the time we burn the nights out we are the one that turn the lights out this is the time we sing our hearts out one more time again

Sometimes i realize that the truth is just making you blind
This world is ready to die
But for you its like killing us twice +repeat ref. & cho.+

When you need to be loved
I will stand before your eyes
When you stop to be free
I want the world to see
When you need to be love
I will stand right before your eyes
When you need to be loved
I will stand before your eyes
+repeat cho.+
