All the fun
Is hiding behind the sun
Waiting for us to come, and have it
And even though
We'll be sad here if we don't
We're too scared to venture close enough to grab it

Well are we too afraid to fly?
Let's dust off our wings tonight
Are we too afraid to fly?
Because even if we get burned
In the process it's worth the try

When we were young
And our sights were set above
We knew not what would Become of our haven
Now every pound
That keeps us cemented down
Has us permanently bound to the pavement

Well are we too afraid to fly?
Let's dust off our wings tonight
Are we too afraid to fly?
Because even if we get burned
In the process it's worth the try
