"Without You"

Only you know what it means the language that you speak
Only you can read your mind the thoughts you hide and seek
It's so hard to breath, It's so hard to move
I can even sleep in this lonely room
Is this what i have to go through
To be able to live my life without you
Is this what i have to feel like
To be able to live without you by my side
Only you know what it's like
The way you live your life
Only you know how it feels
To live within your dreams
And if i could run i still could'nt hide
The torture remains til the end of time
Is this what i have to go through
To be able to live my life without you
Is this what i have to feel like
To be able to live without you by my side
To be able to live my life without you
To be able to live without you by my side
Its hurting so bad
Its hard to define
I want you pass yet stay on my mind
Illusions i hade is far from the truth
I never survive getting over you
Is this what i have to go through to live life
Without you
I feel unable to go in life
Without you
