"Without You"

Turn me slowly, then spin me around
Cut me open till I hear sound
Then tomorrow, feel (fill?) my sorrow
If you wallow, then I'll follow

I can never be without you
I will hold you and never doubt you
Come much closer so I can feel you
You're scar on my skin, now that I've found you

You think you understand
If I lose my mind
I was thinking of giving up sometimes
If you walk away, got a lot to say
Oh how much it kills me, everything.

I'm here in this place, wasting my time
Finding some holes to free up my mind
Here beside you, with good intention
All I need now is your obsession

I can never be without you
I will hold you and never doubt you
Come much closer so I can feel you
You're scar on my skin, now that I've found you

You think you understand
If I lose my mind
I was thinking of giving up sometimes
If you walk away, got a lot to say
Oh how much it kills me, everything.

Everythingâ€¦
Everythingâ€¦
Everythingâ€¦

Heal my wounds
So wild your emotions run in deep inside my soul
No time to walk away
No reason for me to stay
Up in this place, so let me goâ€¦

Heal my wounds
While your emotions run in deep inside my soul
No time to walk away, no reason for me to stay
Up in this place, and let me go

You think you understand
If I lose my mind
I was thinking of giving up sometimes
If you walk away, got a lot to say
Oh how much it kills me, everything.

You think you understand
If I lose my mind
I was thinking of giving up sometimes
If you walk away, got a lot to say
Oh how much it kills me, everything.

Everything
Everything
Everything
