Out on the range again
I know I've got to beware
High plains drifter my friend
I know I've got to be there

You say I've got to be gone
Keep singing that pusherman song
I know there's someone out there
There's gonna blast my rocking chair

There's always some cowboy motherfucker
Trying to kick the dust outta me

Rusted heroes
Another motherload
Top cats and dealers
Rusted heroes
Another motherload
Ain't coming home tonight

Last night the doors were kicked in
Don't care I wasn't home
Find out the snitch was a friend
I know he's got to be gone
Yeah man, it's such a damn shame
I'm wired and ready to hang
I haven't slept in five days
In the trunk you'll find the cocaine

There's always some damn motivated cop
Trying to beat the shit outta me

Rusted heroes
Another motherload
Top cats and dealers
Rusted heroes
Moving on your own
Mad dogs and squealers
Heroes
Zeroes
You sold me out

Rusted heroes
Selling all you know to mad dogs and dealers Seems like anything I do in life is an occupational hazard

Don't look so sad now
It's not as hard as it seems
I'm just the healer and you call me the friend
God damn you all

Rusted heroes
Another motherload
Top cats and dealers
Rusted heroes
Another motherload

Breaker breaker it's a hero brother
With another load coming and driving all night to deliver
I've got a trunk full of stuff and I can't get enough
Stone criminal, a beautiful sinner

Breaker, breaker 19 there's a cop up my behind
And a road block up ahead on the highway
Put the pedal to the metal to deliver this stuff
And you know I gotta do it my way Seems like everything I do in life is an occupational hazard
