I was on the outside
When the world started spinning
You were busy throwing rocks
While I was getting stoned
In between a sunrise
There are things that don't look pretty
Somehow I believe that I've got to carry on

Something about your love gets to me
Something about your love. Killing me
Killing me

Spreading out our wings in vain
Filling up the spaces
Then we let go
Flying at the speed of sound
I could feel the crash
Couldn't find the traces
All that we had
Lay in pieces on the ground

Something about your love gets to me
Something about your love. Killing me
Killing me

All of the things we saw amazed our eyes
Let's celebrate
The light I've been leaning on is where you've gone

You don't need a reason
To let me down so easy
Just move away from my world and see
If you're gonna go
And let me know you're leaving
Anything we hold
Any day can break free

Something about your love gets to me
Something about your love. Killing me
Killing me
