"Perfect"

Visit "Perfect" on MotoLyrics.com

When every word you said was nothing but the truth
Every word you said went far beyond our youth
When every word came through the silence of your smile
To an extent I never knew that words could do

Hold this tightly beautiful is such a failing word
If only words could tell you (Tell you)
Breathe this moment
I'll be happy as long as you are too
This is where I say I love you (I love you)

So take my hand as we drift away
Here's an entrance to heaven
When this is all I know
This is all I need
All I see is perfection

When every you said was nothing but the truth
Every word you said went far beyond our youth
When every word came through the silence of your
To an extent I never knew that words could do

Hold this tightly beautiful is such a failing word
If only words could tell you (Tell you)
Breathe this moment
I'll be happy as long as you are too
This is where I say I love you (I love you)

So take my hand as we drift away
Here's an entrance to heaven
When this is all I know
This is all I need
All I see is perfection

I told you, "You're perfect"
You asked me "How can this be?"
I told you, "You're perfect, perfect to me and perfect for me"

So take my hand as we drift away
Here's an entrance to heaven
When this is all I know
This is all I need
All I see is perfection

Hold this tightly beautiful is such a failing word
If only words could tell you (Tell you)
Breathe this moment
I'll be happy as long as you are too
This is where I say I love you
