Thinking Of You

i guess i kinda sort of know i ought to be thinking of you but the friendship's built on trust and that's something you never do well who knows maybe tomorrow we can share each other's sorrow and compare our grave manner as we wave our lonely banners

if you ever think of me i'll be thinking of you if you decide to change your views i'm thinking of you

you can walk away from loneliness anytime you choose and you're the sort of person that hasn't anything to lose but who cares maybe tomorrow you can lead and i could follow so walk where angels fear to tread for everything you've ever wanted and if you ever think of me

i'll be thinking of you if you can spare an hour or two you'll know what to do

i could be the one thing there in your our of need
so if you decide to change your views
i'm thinking of you

let's roll the dice in the fools paradise... share moonlit nights breathing nothing but lies let's open our eyes...

we should take a bus to somewhere else to somewhere new thank god we're alive and bite off more than we can chew do the things that just don't matter laugh while others look in anger stumble over four leaf clovers and say goodbye to lonely banners

through thick and thin i bear it and grin and never give in

i'm thinking of you
