I lie awake in the morning light
No one to hold another sleepless night
'Cause it's over now that you've left me oh so lonely

Oh, I hear it calling, oh, I hear it calling

Real love, won't somebody show me?
Real love, isn't anyone true anymore?
Real love, won't somebody show me?
Real love, where are you?

All through my life I've been feelin' down
Searchin' to find I'm lost and not found
There's gotta be someone, someone who understands me

Oh, I hear it calling, oh, I hear it calling

Real love, won't somebody show me?
Real love, isn't anyone true anymore?
Real love, won't somebody show me?
Real love, where are you?

Oh, I hear it calling
Oh, can't you hear it calling?

Real love, won't somebody show me?
Real love, isn't anyone true anymore?
Real love, won't somebody show me?
Real love, where are you?

Oh where are you?
Real love, where are you?
Oh where are you?
