Rag doll show me the light
Awaken my sleeping life tonight
Rag doll I can see God filling your eyes
And in a panic I pound upon you
Weeping, I watch you say goodbye

Eyes closed forever
Forever I see with new eyes
Eyes closed forever
Forever I see with new eyes
Rag doll, your eyes closed forever
I am reborn alive with your last breath

Out of you, into me
Out of you, I clearly see

Rag doll can I shake you back to life
'Cause all I've got is your flesh in my hands
And your firestorm in my head
So much to pay, too long for regret
My hands are covered in screams
But my heart is full of hope

Forever, just a rag doll in my hands
I see you falling into the sky

Just a rag doll in my hands
Can my voice reach that high?
Just a rag doll in my hands
Forever I see with new eyes
I watch you say goodbye
Eyes closed forever
Forever I see with new eyes
Rag doll I am reborn alive
With your last breath

Rag doll how could you have known
All the missing pieces you left behind
So much left unresolved
