I made it, I made it I can see clearly now, the rain is gone the pain is still here but the change gonna come made it here on my own 2 feet no crotch beneath my arms, ain't shit sweet grandma raised me, without her, who knows where I be? lost mama at 3, papa's on the d somewhere selling socks and boxers on the street still I've made it I used to scream why me?!
I used to dreams about thangs, voltron, transformers, GI joe and a pair of jocks look where I'm at, shit, where I'm going young nigga, no father to show him you put a seed in the garden to grow no water, no light, regardless, I rose up Look at me now, on the way on the prayer through the doubt and the fear, crucified blood sweat and the tears, I made it here from a wheel to a way, from the lies and from pain made it out my way, I made it Made corners in the elevator, man hung while his body incinerated niggas made up all type and games the icy main that come through, cedly, go, go, what's the truth sitting on the stove, playing that's my car, a navy blue and that Mercedes too, my man, like I'ma get it with this crack in my shoe 14 and already in the game, slinging dust to flagrant flame it must be a greater way, and trust me â€¦ I'ma make you proud without trying but I gotta do it now, time flying you can't live forever, I just need this plan to come together
Look at me now, on the way on the prayer
through the doubt and the fear, crucified

I have the fiery of a lion heart of a warrior, will of a dreamer faith of a believer fiery of a lion
faith of a believer
I believed in me, yes I did On the way on the prayer through the doubt and the prayer, crucified blood sweat and the tears, I made it here
made it out my way, I made it.
